NOMINATIONS ARE NOW OPEN FOR THE NEXT YOUTH INTERN WITH THE ALBURY-WODONGA ETHNIC COMMUNITIES COUNCIL

Are you passionate about building a welcoming and inclusive Albury-Wodonga?
Do you want to develop and use your skills to contribute to the community?

The Albury-Wodonga Ethnic Communities Council (AWECC) has an upcoming opportunity for a young person from a refugee background to complete a one-day per week, three-month summer internship within its community advocacy team. The successful intern will commence in November 2018 and be required to attend and actively participate in the Emerging Leaders' Summit in Beechworth Victoria between the 8th to 11th November 2018 (valued at $1500).

The intern will work closely with AWECC's Community Advocacy Officer's, helping to plan and deliver a range of community and youth-focused programs and advocacy campaigns.

Applicants are required to provide a written application outlining why they are interested in undertaking the internship and what they can contribute during their time as an intern. An interest or developing skills in community services or social work will be highly valued.

For further information about the position or application process, please contact AWECC's Community Advocacy Officer Brett Sanderson on 0417 582 664 or via email to brett@awecc.org.au

Applications are to be submitted via email to brett@awecc.org.au or by post to PO Box 920, Wodonga VIC 3689 by 9am on 5 October 2018. Please note, late applications will not be accepted.
